

Laurie Reeve Founding President

Laurie Reeve is a well-known professional organizer, author, speaker, trainer and founding president of Simply In Order™, LLC. She is the creator of the 5-Step Organizing Systems™, Paper T.R.A.P.S.™, and the Ask the Organizer Show which airs monthly on KUTV2 News @ Noon.

She received her Bachelors of Science in Early Childhood Education, an Associates of Applied Science in Child Development, and her Utah Teaching Certificate in 1989.

Prior to becoming a professional organizer, Laurie was a college instructor for Weber State University as well as an elementary school teacher. For nearly 20 years, she has helped hundreds of people eliminate clutter and simplify life. She combines her passion for organizing with her love for teaching to provide organizing services to both residential and corporate clients as well as training new professional organizers.

Her newly released book 5-Step Organizing, The Proven Process To Organize Anything! teaches others how to get organized the SIMPLE way, one SIMPLE step at a time.

She is the Founding President of the National Association of Professional Organizers in Utah. She has been an active member of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) since 2005, is a NAPO Golden Circle Member, and a member of the National Association of Professional Women (NAPW).

She lives in South Jordan, Utah with her husband of 29 years and her two sons.

Short Bio:

Laurie Reeve, professional organizer, professional speaker, author of 5-Step Organizing The Proven Process To Organize Anything!, trainer, creator of 5-Step Organizing Systems™, Paper T.R.A.P.S.™ and the Ask the Organizer Show, monthly organizing expert with KUTV2 News, and founding president of both Simply In Order, LLC and the Utah chapter of National Association of Professional Organizers.

